

Middle Tennessee Carriage Club Announces

A Clinic with Joanna Wilburn

May 20-21, 2017

Joanna is the driving coach and farm anchor to the family business at Rollingwoods Farm in Olive Branch, MS.

Rollingwoods Farm began with the dream of Ruth Wilburn DVM, to produce a pretty pony with athletic ability and a good mind. Soon joined by her two sisters, Joanna Wilburn and Sally Ross Davis, Rollingwoods began to specialize in Pure Bred and Part Bred Welsh ponies. After much hard work, laughter, and determination, they have succeeded: having bred, trained and owned either the National or Reserve National Welsh driving pony from 1991 to present.

Joanna has been a popular clinician at The National Drive, as well as to the Nashoba Carriage Association. She competes in breed shows, pleasure driving and CDEs, and as a navigator. Joanna's heartfelt enjoyment of the equine brain mixed with her wit, enthusiasm and practical advice will benefit drivers of any skill level.

Lessons: $65/private lesson of approximately 45-50 minutes. $45/semi-private lesson (you must arrange your lesson partner). Auditing: free!
